Volume fell on the last day by -24 thousand shares and in total, 170 thousand shares were bought and sold for approximately $2.75 million. You should take into consideration that falling volume on higher prices causes divergence and may be an early warning about possible changes over the next couple of days.

Given the current short-term trend, the stock is expected to rise 7.36% during the next 3 months and, with a 90% probability hold a price between $16.79 and $17.75 at the end of this 3-month period.

The Kimbell Royalty Partners Representing stock holds buy signals from both short and long-term Moving Averages giving a positive forecast for the stock. Also, there is a general buy signal from the relation between the two signals where the short-term average is above the long-term average. On corrections down, there will be some support from the lines at $16.01 and $15.80. A breakdown below any of these levels will issue sell signals. Volume fell during the last trading day despite gaining prices. This causes a divergence between volume and price and it may be an early warning. The stock should be watched closely.

Kimbell Royalty Partners Representing finds support from accumulated volume at $15.69 and this level may hold a buying opportunity as an upwards reaction can be expected when the support is being tested. On the upside the stock meets some resistance just above today's level from accumulated volume at $16.14, $16.29 and $16.30.
