The Aberdeen Standard Global Infrastructure ETF price gained 0.85% on the last trading day (Friday, 3rd May 2024), rising from $17.61 to $17.76. It has now gained 3 days in a row. It will be exciting to see whether it manages to continue gaining or take a minor break for the next few days. During the last trading day the ETF fluctuated 1.30% from a day low at $17.65 to a day high of $17.88. The price has risen in 8 of the last 10 days and is up by 4.96% over the past 2 weeks. Volume fell on the last day by - 51 thousand shares and in total, 67 thousand shares were bought and sold for approximately $1.19 million. You should take into consideration that falling volume on higher prices causes divergence and may be an early warning about possible changes over the next couple of days.

The Aberdeen Standard Global Infrastructure ETF holds buy signals from both short and long-term Moving Averages giving a positive forecast for the stock. Also, there is a general buy signal from the relation between the two signals where the short-term average is above the long-term average. On corrections down, there will be some support from the lines at $17.39 and $17.37. A breakdown below any of these levels will issue sell signals. A buy signal was issued from a pivot bottom point on Tuesday, April 16, 2024, and so far it has risen 6.96%. Further rise is indicated until a new top pivot has been found. Furthermore, there is a buy signal from the 3 month Moving Average Convergence Divergence (MACD). Some negative signals were issued as well, and these may have some influence on the near short-term development. Volume fell during the last trading day while the price increased. This causes a divergence and may be considered as an early warning, but it may also not.
