score: 0

The iShares International Select Dividend ETF price gained 0.554% on the last trading day (Friday, 10th May 2024), rising from $28.90 to $29.06. During the last trading day the ETF fluctuated 0.379% from a day low at $29.03 to a day high of $29.14. The price has risen in 7 of the last 10 days and is up by 3.56% over the past 2 weeks. Volume fell on the last day by -213 thousand shares and in total, 293 thousand shares were bought and sold for approximately $8.50 million. You should take into consideration that falling volume on higher prices causes divergence and may be an early warning about possible changes over the next couple of days.

The iShares International Select Dividend ETF holds buy signals from both short and long-term Moving Averages giving a positive forecast for the stock. Also, there is a general buy signal from the relation between the two signals where the short-term average is above the long-term average. On corrections down, there will be some support from the lines at $28.64 and $27.96. A breakdown below any of these levels will issue sell signals. A buy signal was issued from a pivot bottom point on Tuesday, April 16, 2024, and so far it has risen 7.87%. Further rise is indicated until a new top pivot has been found. Furthermore, there is a buy signal from the 3 month Moving Average Convergence Divergence (MACD). Volume fell during the last trading day despite gaining prices. This causes a divergence between volume and price and it may be an early warning. The ETF should be watched closely.

This ETF is usually traded at a good volume, and with minor daily changes, the risk is considered to be low. During the last day, the ETF moved $0.110 (0.379%) between high and low. For the last week, the ETF has had daily average volatility of 0.512%.
