The iShares FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Global Real ETF price gained 2.60% on the last trading day (Thursday, 2nd May 2024), rising from $20.40 to $20.93. During the last trading day the ETF fluctuated 1.50% from a day low at $20.62 to a day high of $20.93. The price has risen in 7 of the last 10 days and is up by 5.18% over the past 2 weeks. Volume has increased on the last day along with the price, which is a positive technical sign, and, in total, 10 thousand more shares were traded than the day before. In total, 15 thousand shares were bought and sold for approximately $308.03 thousand.

Mostly positive signals in the chart today. The iShares FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Global Real ETF holds buy signals from both short and long-term Moving Averages giving a positive forecast for the stock, but the ETF has a general sell signal from the relation between the two signals where the long-term average is above the short-term average. On corrections down, there will be some support from the lines at $20.40 and $20.61. A breakdown below any of these levels will issue sell signals. A buy signal was issued from a pivot bottom point on Thursday, April 18, 2024, and so far it has risen 5.18%. Further rise is indicated until a new top pivot has been found. Furthermore, there is a buy signal from the 3 month Moving Average Convergence Divergence (MACD). iShares FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Global Real has increased volume and follows the last lift in the price. This is considered to be a technical positive sign as volume should follow the price-formation. Higher liquidity also reduces the general risk.

Several short-term signals are positive and we conclude that the current level may hold a buying opportunity, as there is a fair chance for iShares FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Global Real ETF to perform well in the short-term period.
