Tech commentaries:

The Novartis AG stock price fell by -0.360% on the last day (Friday, 21st Jun 2024) from 94.33 Fr to 93.99 Fr. During the last trading day the stock fluctuated 0.88% from a day low at 93.98 Fr to a day high of 94.81 Fr. The price has fallen in 6 of the last 10 days and is down by -1.01% for this period. Volume has increased on the last day by 8 million shares but on falling prices. This may be an early warning and the risk will be increased slightly over the next couple of days. In total, 11 million shares were bought and sold for approximately 1.05 Fr billion.

The stock lies in the middle of a narrow and strong rising trend in the short term and a further rise within the trend is signaled. Given the current short-term trend, the stock is expected to rise 12.10% during the next 3 months and, with a 90% probability hold a price between 103.07 Fr and 107.48 Fr at the end of this 3-month period.

The Novartis AG stock holds a sell signal from the short-term Moving Average; at the same time, however, there is a buy signal from the long-term average. Since the short-term average is above the long-term average there is a general buy signal in the stock giving a positive forecast for the stock. On further gains, the stock will meet resistance from the short-term Moving Average at approximately 94.03 Fr. On a fall, the stock will find some support from the long-term average at approximately 92.69 Fr. A break-up through the short-term average will send a buy signal, whereas a breakdown through the long-term average will send a sell signal. Furthermore, there is a buy signal from the 3 month Moving Average Convergence Divergence (MACD). Some negative signals were issued as well, and these may have some influence on the near short-term development. A sell signal was issued from a pivot top point on Friday, June 14, 2024, and so far it has fallen -1.07%. Further fall is indicated until a new bottom pivot has been found. Volume rose on falling prices yesterday. This may be an early warning and the stock should be followed more closely.

Novartis AG finds support from accumulated volume at 93.17 Fr and this level may hold a buying opportunity as an upwards reaction can be expected when the support is being tested. On the upside the stock meets some resistance just above today's level from accumulated volume at 94.33 Fr, 94.50 Fr and 95.01 Fr.

In general the stock tends to have very controlled movements and with good liquidity the risk is considered very low in this stock. During the last day, the stock moved 0.83 Fr between high and low, or 0.88%. For the last week the stock has had daily average volatility of 1.16%.

Several short-term signals, along with a general good trend, are positive and we conclude that the current level may hold a buying opportunity as there is a fair chance for Novartis AG stock to perform well in the short-term.
