Tech commentaries:

The Williamson Magor & Co. Limited stock price gained 0.645% on the last trading day (Wednesday, 3rd Jul 2024), rising from 37.22 to 37.46. During the last trading day the stock fluctuated 4.57% from a day low at 37.00 to a day high of 38.69. The price has risen in 6 of the last 10 days and is up by 1% over the past 2 weeks. Volume fell on the last day by -125 shares and in total, 9 thousand shares were bought and sold for approximately 322.61 thousand. You should take into consideration that falling volume on higher prices causes divergence and may be an early warning about possible changes over the next couple of days.

The stock lies in the middle of a wide and weak rising trend in the short term and a further rise within the trend is signaled. Given the current short-term trend, the stock is expected to rise 2.07% during the next 3 months and, with a 90% probability hold a price between 34.16 and 42.41 at the end of this 3-month period.

The Williamson Magor & Co. Limited stock holds a sell signal from the short-term Moving Average; at the same time, however, there is a buy signal from the long-term average. Since the short-term average is above the long-term average there is a general buy signal in the stock giving a positive forecast for the stock. On further gains, the stock will meet resistance from the short-term Moving Average at approximately 38.26. On a fall, the stock will find some support from the long-term average at approximately 37.15. A break-up through the short-term average will send a buy signal, whereas a breakdown through the long-term average will send a sell signal. A buy signal was issued from a pivot bottom point on Tuesday, July 02, 2024, and so far it has risen 0.645%. Further rise is indicated until a new top pivot has been found. Furthermore, there is a buy signal from the 3 month Moving Average Convergence Divergence (MACD). Some negative signals were issued as well, and these may have some influence on the near short-term development. Volume fell during the last trading day while the price increased. This causes a divergence and may be considered as an early warning, but it may also not.

Williamson Magor & Co. Limited finds support from accumulated volume at 37.15 and this level may hold a buying opportunity as an upwards reaction can be expected when the support is being tested. On the upside the stock meets some resistance from accumulated volume at 39.80, 40.60 and 40.95.

This stock has average movements during the day, but be aware of low or falling volume as this increases the risk. During the last day, the stock moved 1.69 between high and low, or 4.57%. For the last week the stock has had daily average volatility of 4.94%.

Several short-term signals, along with a general good trend, are positive and we conclude that the current level may hold a buying opportunity as there is a fair chance for Williamson Magor & Co. Limited stock to perform well in the short-term.

Risk: Medium

Evaluation: Buy Candidate
